

The Job and Revelation Tool

What do you do when big life hits?

Where do you go when it feels like the bottom of everything just fell out?

Who do you talk to when you feel like God has let you down?

What do you do: When you feel like it is wrong to ask these questions?

...When your faith tank is on empty and holds nothing more than hot air?

...When your situation looks beyond hope, and it seems that everything else in life is winning the battle?

That is when you pull out this tool!

- 1) Carve out about an hour and a half of time that you can be alone and undisturbed.
- 2) Staying fully cognitive, pour yourself a glass of, a cup of, a mug of whatever your relaxing drink of choice might be.
- 3) Make yourself comfortable.
- 4) Take out your Bible with actual pages, or a Bible on your device, or download an audio version of one of these two books.

The book of *Job

Or

The book of *Revelation

Or Both

(Recommended in two different sittings)

Both of these books baffle the reader. Both of these books traverse into the fog of understanding, the extra and beyond-human amazing. Both of these books are difficult to understand and will defy your thinking process.

This is good.

You may notice almost as a caveat at the beginning of the book of Revelation that it says, "Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near." (Revelation 1:3, NIV) Please notice it doesn't say ...the one who understands... It says the one who reads. When I first understood this, it took the pressure off. I'm just called, "to read and take to heart."

How to Apply This Tool:

So, take either book and with a heart of worship and intrigue, read it in one sitting. That's right, one sitting.

You will be overwhelmed and blessed with the wonder, the intrigue, and the fantastic reality of the word pictures. It's good to be filled with this kind of awe and wonder. I'm quite sure; at least in part that is the point of these two books.

I remember the first time I did this. I came away with a huge sense of an Amazing God who is over all the affairs of this life.

I was then immediately impressed that he was taking care of all the affairs of my life.

I want you to experience that for yourself. It goes a long way to let you rest and be sure that you are going to be okay.
